Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming hallway that leads to a splendid dining kitchen, thoughtfully designed with both style and practicality in mind. The kitchen provides generous space for family meals and entertaining, complemented by sleek cabinetry and integrated appliances. The ground floor also features a well-appointed shower room, while the first floor hosts a family bathroom, both finished with modern fittings and tasteful décor. Throughout the home, new fitted flooring and fresh, neutral decoration create an inviting ambience, ready for personal touches. Further benefits include gas central heating and uPVC double glazing, ensuring comfort and energy efficiency year-round.

Outside, the property is set amidst its own garden grounds, designed for ease of maintenance. The front and rear gardens are attractively laid out with a combination of monobloc paving and gravel, providing a smart, low-maintenance environment that is perfect for relaxing or entertaining outdoors. To the side of the house, a further area of garden ground has been prepared and scraped clean, offering a blank canvas for new owners to landscape and develop according to their preferences. Ample off-road parking is available on both sides of the property, ensuring convenience for multiple vehicles or visiting guests.
